

Description of testing	Expected outcome	Actual outcome	Comments/Mitigation
Test 1 - Test if the home page loads and displays everything correctly.	The home page should load with the correct images and style, that the assets folder refers to.	It worked as expected, takes less than one second load.	Need to test if the Navigation bar works. check if code is maintainable & commented. Testing evidence is provided in the table below
Test 2 - Test if the about link on the navigation bar load the about page and shows the correct style and images that the assets folder refers to.	The about page should load and with the correct style, that the assets folder refers to.	It worked as expected, takes less than one second to load.	Need to test if the Enrol page works on the Navigation bar.
Test 3 - Test if the enrol link on the navigation bar loads the enrol page and shows the correct style and images that the assets folder refers to.	The enrol page should load. when the link is clicked with the correct style, that the assets folder refers to.	It worked as expected, takes less than one second to load. connects to the database correctly.	Currently using Laragon local host for the database so the database needs to be loaded. Need to test if the contact page works on the navigation bar.
Test 4 - Test if the contact link on the navigation bar loads the contact page and shows the correct style and images that the assets folder refers to.	The contact should load the website, within one second, and should connect to the database to make the drop-down boxes have options from the database. it also shows correct style and images that, the assets folder refers to.	The contact page loads withing one second and the drop-down boxes have the available options from the database.	Currently using Laragon local host for the database so the database needs to be loaded. Need to test if the sign-in page works on the navigation bar.
Test 5 - Test if the sign-in link on the	The sign-in page should load the	The sign-in page loads	Need to test if the link back to the home navigation bar loads the contact page and shows the correct style and images that the assets folder refers to.	website within one second and should give the user the option to enter their email and password to sign-in. it also shows correct style and images, that the assets folder refers to.	within one second and the user gets the options to enter their email and password to sign-in.	page on the navigation bar loads. The home page with the correct style and images, that the assets folder refers to.

Test 6 - Test if the link back to the home page on the navigation bar loads the home page with the correct style and images that the assets folder refers to.	The home page loads with the correct style and images, that the assets folder refers to.	The home page loads within one second and the style and images match with the style and images in the assets folder.	All the Navigation bar links to the correct location. Next the settings button will need to be tested to check if it opens the settings page.
Test 7 - Test if the settings page opens when the user clicks on the settings button and loads, with the correct style and images.	The settings page loads with the correct style and images that the assets folder refers to.	The settings page loads with the correct style and images that the assets folder refers to.	Next, the Amazon logo needs to be tested to see if it links to the amazon website when the user clicks on it.
Test 8 - Test if the Amazon logo links to the Amazon website.	The Amazon logo takes the user to the Amazon website.	The Amazon logo takes the user to the Amazon website. but it's blocked by the school.	The Amazon website is blocked on our network so we cannot access the website.
Test 9 - Test if the sign-in page will allow the user to sign into the website and will show the user new	The website should reveal new pages after the user signs into the website.	The website logs the user in so they can access the new parts of the website.	The user needs to be logged out by default, whereas it currently has the user logged in by default.

parts of the website that were previously hidden because they were signed out.		However, the user can log in even without having credentials that match an account and shows the new parts of the website.	Next the enrol page's function needs to be tested to check that it adds the user to the database.
Test 10 - Test if the enrol page's function adds the user to the database with all the correct credentials that the user entered.	The user is added to the database with the correct information, allowing them to sign into the website.	There is an error when enrolling the student.	Need to fix the amazon id not having a default value Need to test if the contact page's function adds a career advisor to the database.
Test 11 - Test if the contact page's function adds a career advisor to the database. with the correct information.	The career advisor is added to the database with the correct information.	The career advisor is added to the database with the correct information.	Need to test the school registration page to test if schools can be added to the database.
Test 12 - Test if the school registration adds a school to the database.	The school should be added to the database with the correct information.	The school was added to the database with the correct information.	The school registration is not accessible to the public because then school which aren't real will be added.